NOTICE.

Notwithstanding the many publications on bookkeeping it is a lamentable fact that few if any have emanated from practical business experience. The present work will be found an indispensable aid to the accountant, merchant, manufacturer, storekeeper, professional man, mechanic, farmer, students of commercial colleges, &c., school boys and girls whose minds naturally incline to business interest, and consider it amusement rather than a task.

In this work simplicity is the object aimed at and everything unnecessary in the system of keeping accounts has been carefully avoided, the principles of bookkeeping being shown, not by abstract rules, but by examples of the various transactions common in actual business in our best regulated and most successful houses.

The work comprises bookkeeping by double entry with instructions on the averaging of accounts, as also an appendix giving explanations of mercantile terms and transactions.

And is respectfully presented to the public with a confidence, that it will supply a long felt want.

BOOK-KEEPING.

Bookkeeping is the recording and classifying a merchant's or tradesmans daily transactions, and keeping an account of his property and debts.

The property or capital of persons in business may be comprised under the following heads

1st. Stock in trade, goods, warehouses, machinery, ships, &c., employed in the business.

2nd. Accounts or debts.

3rd. Bills

4th. Cash

A merchant's book ought to show clearly the whole amount of his property, of what it is composed, and also the amount of his debts.

The following are the most important books used:-

Day Book for Goods sold on Credit. Invoice " bought Cash Cash received and paid.

Discount received and allowed.

" Bills receivable and payable. Bill

Stock To Contain the inventory of the stock at the time of balancing the books.

Contain an abstract of the other books. Ledger

The following are also in use:-

Memorandum Book.

Letter

Various other books are used according to the nature of the business.

DAY-BOOK.

Purpose of, to keep a daily account of all goods sold on credit. When a merchant sells goods on credit, before sending them out he enters in his Day Book the names and addresses of the persons to whom sold, with a description of the goods and their prices, as also any other charges. The particulars of the entries are filled in the inner money columns; the sums total in the outer. Wholesale houses enter the terms, mode of conveyance and salesman's name.

INVOICE-BOOK.

Is used for keeping an account of all goods bought on credit, so called because the entries in it are copied from the Invoices usually sent by post or with the goods. When goods are bought and received the names and addresses of the persons from whom bought and the amount are entered. Instead of copying the Invoices it is more convenient to enter the amount only, the Invoices being preserved for future reference if necessary. They may be kept in a book alphabetically arranged or folded, having the name, date and amount marked on each; or better still, the Invoice Book entries may be numbered, commencing at No. 1, a corresponding number being put on the outside of the Invoice when folded and placed away weekly, monthly, or banded together in parcels of 100 each.

CASH-BOOK.

Contains an account of all the cash you receive and pay away and of the discount allowed by and to you, two pages or more, as seen at pages 86 and 87, being required for the entries; the Dr. or left hand sides for entering the cash you receive and the discount allowed by you; the Cr. or right hand page for the cash you pay away and the discount allowed to you. If each page is ruled only with double money columns the inner column is for the discount, the outer for the cash, the nature of each transaction being distinctly expressed, and the sums received or paid written in the money columns opposite its entry. When you receive payment of an account enter on the Dr. or left hand side, the name and address of the person from whom you receive the money, and write the amount of cash and discount in the cash and discount columns. When you pay an account enter on the Cr. or right hand side, the name and address of the person to whom paid, and write the amount and the discount in their respective columns. See page 23. In the

BILL-BOOK

Is kept an account of all bills receivable and payable; one portion of the book is kept for bills receivable, the other for bills payable. The names of the persons whom you have received them from, or to whom you may have given them, with the sums, dates and any other particulars. When you discount the bills receivable at the bank, or receive payment of them when due, they are entered in the cash-book, and the dates of being so entered are filled in the bill-book column. See page 54. Bills payable when paid they are entered in the cash-book, and the dates of their being paid entered in the bill-book column. See page 56.

THE LEDGER

Contains an abstract of all the entries made in the other books, the entries through the Day-book, Invoice-book, Cashbook, and Bill-book, are collected in the ledger and arranged in the order of their dates under the names of the various persons or accounts to which they belong. A page or such portion of a page as is likely to be required is assigned to each person or account, each page being ruled with Dr. and Cr. columns, the Dr. on the left hand side, and the Cr. on the right. The amounts of all the Dr. entries belonging to each person are copied one by one into the Dr. sides, and the amounts of all the Cr. entries into the Cr. sides of the respective accounts in the Ledger. The copying of these entries into the Ledger is called posting.

N. B.—The entries of goods on the Dr. side are posted from the Day-book, on the Cr. side from Invoice-book, the entries of cash and bills are posted from the Cash and Billbooks.

N. B.—In ruling off accounts and carrying forward any balance to next accounts, bear in mind that the balance—for example, a Dr. balance—should be carried forward to the Dr. of the next account before it is entered on the Cr. side of the previous account and before being ruled off as settled. This is to prevent forgetting to carry forward the balance which is apt to occur if the account is ruled off first.

JOURNAL.

This book, though not essential, is often used as a matter of convenience in double entry

It contains a monthly abstract of the various entries under the name of any person or thing in the Day-book, Invoice-book, &c., so as the amount of each month be posted in one sum to the Ledger. When a Journal is not used the entries in the Day-book, &c., are posted directly into the Ledger; and when a Journal is used the entries in the Day-book, &c., are first posted in the Journal, and then an abstract of them is posted to their respective accounts in the Ledger.

These entries are copied from the Day-book. The amount is first posted to the Dr. of Geo. Knight, and at the second posting the different sums are entered to the Cr. of the accounts for Sugar and Goods.

The Journal is dispensed with in the following.

DOUBLE ENTRY.

Bookkeeping by Double Entry. So called because all the entries in the Day-book, Invoice-book, Cash-book and Bill-book are posted twice in the Ledger.

The entries are first posted to the Dr. or Cr. of their accounts, and then a second time to the Dr. or Cr. of some other account. The entries first posted to the Dr. side of the Ledger being posted the second time to the Cr. side, and those first posted to the Cr. side being posted the second time to the Dr. side. Double entry serves the following purposes:—

1st. To test the accuracy of the posting; the second being a check on the first, as seen at page 77.

2nd. To show the amount of goods bought and sold during the year or any other time.

3rd. To show the profit or loss on the various departments of the business.

4th. To keep separate accounts of the different branches of stock in trade, &c.

POSTING THE DAY-BOOK.

The Day-book may be posted in two ways.

First Posting.—Post all the entries to the Dr. of the various persons.

Second Posting.—At the end of every month add up the sums total that have been filled into the outer columns and post the amount, being the total of goods sold to the Cr. of an account to be opened in the Ledger under the heading Goods, using the words By Credit Sales.

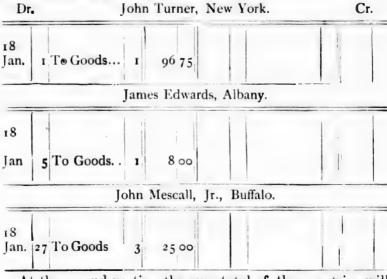

This style of Double Entry is used where the merchant wishes to know the total amount sold, and the profit on the whole, without requiring separate accounts of the different kinds of goods and the profit on each.

EXAMPLE.

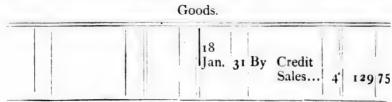

January 1st, 18—.

Jno. Turner, New York. 16 Yds. Blk. Cloth, W. C	96 75
James Edwards, Albany. 2 Hats	800
Jno. Mescall, Junr., Buffalo. To Sundries.	25 00
Goods—Cr. By Credit Sales	$129 75

At the first posting these entries appear in the Ledger to the Dr. of each person's a/c.

At the second posting the sum total of these entries will appear at the Cr. of the a/c for goods.

If the first and second posting be correct, on adding together the sums posted to the Dr. of the above a/cs they will equal in amount the sum posted to the Cr. of the goods a/c, being the same amounts posted to two opposite sides of the Ledger. Hence the second posting is a check on the accuracy of the first. The amount of goods sold on credit during the month is shown by this entry on the Cr. side of the goods a/c. The amount of goods bought on credit is shown in the same way by posting the monthly amount of the Invoice-book to the Dr. side of the goods a/c.

The amount of goods bought and sold for cash is shown by posting these items from the Cash-book to the goods a/c.

POSTING THE DAY-BOOK.

2nd. This is another manner of posting the Day-book.

In some houses are kept separate a/cs for the different kinds of goods sold in large quantities, as wine, tea, coffee, sugar, &c., that the merchant may know how much is sold and the profit on each. For this purpose, in entering goods in the Day-book of which separate a/cs are kept, the sum total of each entry is marked in the inner columns under the particulars; and in entering goods of which no special a/c is kept, but posted to the general account for goods, the sum total of each entry is extended to the outer columns.

This distinction carefully attended to, the posting is as follows:

First Posting—Post all the entries to the Dr. of the various parties.

Second Posting—1. Post the entries of goods of which separate a/cs are kept (being those of which the sums total appear in the inner columns) to the Cr. of the a/cs opened under their own headings, as tea, paper, goods on commission, &c.

2. Add up at the end of every month the sums total extended to the outer columns (being the goods of which no special a/c is kept) and post the amount to the Cr. of the goods a/c.

The pages of the Ledger to which the entries are posted the first time is marked on the margin opposite the name of each person, and the pages of the second posting under it and opposite the goods of each entry.

A mark \checkmark is made against the entries that appear in the outer columns to be posted monthly, and the page in the Ledger to which the sum total at the end of the month has been posted is marked on the margin opposite the addition.

As in the former case, if the posting is correct the amounts posted to the Dr. sides will equal those posted to the Cr. sides of the Ledger.

BALANCING THE LEDGER.

The Ledger is balanced at the end of the year, or any time when a view of your affairs is needed.

Note.—After the books have been all posted, and previous to balancing the Ledger, every entry should be compared with that in the book from which taken, to ascertain that it has been posted

All the a/cs in the Ledger may be comprised under three heads:

1. Personal a cs, for individuals.

2. Property do., for the different kinds of goods and property.

3. Profit and Loss do., for showing the profits or losses on the various transactions.

The personal a/cs, or those for persons, are balanced, all the Dr. balances being carried to the Dr. and all Cr. balances to the Cr. of the next a/cs.

Accounts Peculiar to Double Entry.—The following or others of a similar nature are named Property A/cs.

Goods or Mdse. Cash. Teas, Paper, Sugar, etc. Bills Counting House Furniture, etc.

The following, with others of a similar nature, are called Profit and Loss A/cs.

Discount. Commission. Interest. Trade Expenses. Insurance. Bad Debts.

All these a/cs, with the exception of Cash and Bills, are balanced by carrying the balance to the Dr. or Cr. of a general a/c to be opened under the head of Profit and Loss, as seen under their several a/cs in the following Ledger pages 70 to 77. The a/cs for Cash and Bills are balanced like the personal a/cs by carrying forward the Dr. and Cr. balances to the Dr. and Cr. of next a/cs, see pages 68 and 71.

Trial Balances.—As a check on the accuracy of the posting and balancing, and preparatory to a final balance, all unsettled balances on the Dr. side of the Ledger are added together in one amount, and those of the Cr. side in another; if right, the two sums will be equal; if not, an error has been made, and must be found and rectified.

TAKING STOCK.

An Inventory of Goods or Stock on hand should be taken at least once annually to know the state of your affairs.

A list of all goods for sale and on hand at time of taking stock, with the prices, is entered in a book for the purpose, called the Stock-book, the goods being valued at cost or below cost, as allowance for bad stock or depreciation in value.

In balancing the a/cs in the following Ledger for Goods, Coffee, and Wine, the amount of goods on hand requires to be entered in the various a/cs as seen in the Ledger, pages 69 and 70.

The amount of stock of a more permanent nature, as buildings, machinery, etc., is also entered, the value being found from their a/cs in the Ledger. In such a/cs an annual deduction of 5 to 10% is made from the original cost for wear and tear. See Counting Room furniture at page 71.

Goods on Commission are not entered with the other goods, but in a separate list, as belonging to the persons who sent them for sale. The amount in hand, however, is entered in the Ledger to the Dr. of the persons from whom got, to know the balance due them, as also to the Cr. of the a/c for Goods on Commission. See Ledger, pages 65 and 69.

PROFIT AND LOSS

On the various transactions of the year or any other time is found from an a/c to be opened under the head of Profit and Loss.

This a/c is formed by entering-

On the Dr. side

The Losses—as Bad Debts, Trade Expenses, &c.

On the Cr. side

The Profits—as profit on Goods, Sugar, Paper, Commission, &c.

These profits or losses are found from their a/cs in the Ledger, from which they are transferred; the a/c being balanced when the transfer is made.

The Profit and Loss a/c is balanced by carrying the profit if any to the Cr. (or the loss to the Dr.) of the Private a/c.

See Profit and Loss a/c, page 73.

THE BALANCE-SHEET

Is made out at the end of the year or when you wish to know the state of your affairs.

On the Dr. side are entered-

Your liabilities or what you owe.

On the Cr. side -

Your assets. The sums due you and your property of of every kind.

The difference between the two sides is the nett amount of your capital.

All the particulars of the Balance-Sheet are taken from their respective accounts in the Ledger.

The balance-sheet of Hamilton & Boyd, to whom the following books are supposed to belong, may be seen at pages 74 and 76.

THE PRIVATE A/C

Is kept and balanced as under.

On the Dr. side are entered

The various sums drawn from the business on your own a/c.

On the Cr. side

The sum you put in the business at starting and any sums paid in after.

Interest 5 % on the amount.

The profit (if any) during the year or any other time.

The interest and the profit are brought from the Profit and Loss a/c when balancing your affairs. The Profit and Loss a/c is balanced off when the transfer is made.

If, instead of a profit, there has been a loss, it is carried to the Dr. of your a/c.

The private a/cs of J. Hamilton and R. Boyd may be seen page 74.

DIRECTIONS.

Care should be taken to enter correctly the original sums in the Day-book, &c., as errors made at first are continued in the Ledger, and not easily found out.

After the entries for a month or other time have been posted, they should be compared with the corresponding entries in the Ledger, to find the posting is correct.

The manner of rectifying some of the errors apt to occur in posting may be seen in the a/cs of J. Arnold and J. Edwards (page 60) and T. Dundas (page 61).

The Day-book and Invoice-book are posted by the method shown at pages 10, 12 and 17, separate a/cs being kept for Goods on Commission, Paper, Wine, Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Insurance, Interest, Commissions. All such entries are, therefore, at the second posting, posted separately to their own a/cs, having the posting marked thus: 2

The entries for all other goods are posted in one sum at the end of the month to the general a/c for goods, having the posting marked thus: 3

N.B.—1f H. and B. wanted to know merely the amount of goods bought and sold without any separate a/cs, the sums total of all the entries would be extended to the outer columns and the whole amount posted monthly to the goods a/c.

THE WAREHOUSE-BOOK

Used for keeping an account of the quantities of goods taken into or sent out from the warehouse. Used chiefly in those cases where goods are bought and sold in quantities at a time. The quantity sold and on hand of any description of goods can be known at once on turning up the page where the a/c is kept, careful to have an index of the different a/cs entered.

The manner of keeping the book varies. In the follow-

The two a/cs below are for Tea and Sugar received on commission from J. Cameron and W. Black, and which are entered in the preceding Day-book as sold to the various persons named.

The quantities are entered on the Dr. side on being received and on the Cr. side when sold.

COMMERCIAL TERMS.

Affidavit.—An oath or declaration as to the truth of a fact. In cases of bank: ptcy, or where a debtor dies, persons lodging their claims or accounts, require sending their affidavits with them—

Assets.—The property of every description belonging to a person.

Bankruptcy.—A person unable to pay his debts is said to be insolvent.

Bank Che que.—An order to pay a certain sum when the cheque is presented, drawn by a person who has money deposited with the bank.

Discounting Bills may be done at any period by a bank or bill broker. Discounting a bill consists in giving the money for it, less the interest.

An acceptance requires to be presented to the party on whom drawn, that he may accept of it. This is not necessary in a promissory note.

Presentment for Payment.—All bills require to be presented for payment the day they become due. If not presented they cease having the privileges of bills, becoming mere evidence of debt.

Noting and Protesting.—When a bill is not paid on presentation the holder applies to a Notary, who again presents it. If not paid he notes its non-payment, afterwards drawing out a formal protest, that legal steps may be taken for the amount. A bill should be noted on the day it is due, the protest may be written afterwards. When the cceptor of a bill fails to pay the amount, the holder can fall back for payment on the drawer or any of the indorsers, he giving them the earliest notice possible of non-payment.

Bills are used in settlement of a/cs and drawn at various dates. The usual term is three to six mos.

Bills are sometimes drawn at Sight or so many days after Sight. A Bill of the latter class is drawn by a person at a distance from his debtor, and on writing it out and indorsing it he transmits it to an agent or bank in which the debtor resides. They sending it to the debtor to be sighted which consists in the debtor accepting it by signing his name as also marking the date he does so. The Bill is now negotiable, and on the third day after the day specified, is presented for payment.

Bills of Exchange are commonly drawn at so many days after sight, but for security in transmission are drawn in sets of three.

Days of Grace.—A bill drawn the 1st of August at 3 m/s is not legally due till the 4th of November. If the day a bill falls due happens to be a holiday or Sunday, it is payable the day following.

Bill of Entry.—A list of goods entered at the Custom House.

Bill of Lading.—A receipt on a printed form filled up with writing given by the master of a vessel for goods shipped with him. Four copies are usually drawn out. One for the master, another to be kept by the shipper, and two to be sent to the person to whom the goods are to be forwarded. The shipper gives the person he sends the bill to the right of receiving the goods.

A bill of lading like a bill of exchange may be endorsed over to another who then acquires the right to the goods.

Bonded Goods.—Imported goods left in a government warehouse until the duty is paid.

Capital.—The net amount of property belonging to a person after deducting his debts.

Clearing a Vessel.—Entering her name and an account of her cargo in Custom-house book on leaving port.

Commission.—A charge of so much per cent. for selling goods.

Company.—Two or more persons carrying on a business constitute a company, each being a partner. Companies are private and public. A private company is formed by arrangement among the parties, each having certain duties to perform and getting such share of the profits as agreed upon. No person can leave at his own pleasure, only after a reasonable warning to allow of winding up the business, or put it in condition to pay him back his capital or the profits which are his due. No partner can transfer his share to another without the consent of the others.

Public Companies consist of a body of shareholders.

Composition.—A payment of so much on the $ by a bankrupt to his creditors, they agreeing to take the sum for the full amount of their accounts.

Consul.—A Government officer in a foreign country, to look after the commercial affairs of his nation.

Credit is Selling Goods on Trust.—It. book-keeping, to credit a person is entering his name in your books as Cr. by the goods, Cash, etc., you received from him.

Creditor.—When you get money or goods on trust from another he is your creditor for the amount.

Cr.—The right-hand side in a Ledger or Cash-Book.

Debenture.—A certificate of mortgage or loan on railway or other works, and conveying authority to the holder of seizing the property in the event of the obligations of the deed not being fulfilled. Coupons accompany debentures for the receiving payment of interest at stated times.

Debit.—To debit a person in book-keeping is to enter his name in your books as Dr., to the goods, cash, &c., received from you.

Debtor.—One who owes another for goods, money, &c. Dr.—The left-hand side in a Ledger or Cash Book.

Discount.—An allowance to banks or others for advancing money on bills before due. Applied also to the allowance made at the settlement of a/cs.

Dividend.—The profits divided among the shareholders of a company.

Drawback.—Applied to those duties of Customs which are repaid by government after a certain period, when goods on which they have previously been levied are exported, enabling the exporter to sell his goods in the foreign market unburdened with duties.

Exchange.—Applied to the remittances of money between different countries.

Firm.—The name under which persons carry on business.

Indorser—A bill has been drawn, writes his name on the back of it, he indorses the bill.

Insolvent.—Unable to pay one's debts.

Insurance.—A contract engaging insurance companies to make good to the party insuring, losses he may sustain, of houses, merchandise, ships, &c, The persons taking the risk are insurers, the person protected the insured, the sum paid the insurers the premium, the contract the policy of insurance.

Day-Book, Invoice-Books, Cash-Book, and Bill-Book.

Price Current.—A list showing the market prices of things.

Principal.—Applied to money lent out at interest. Receipt.—An acknowledgement of money received.

Salvage.—When a ship or its cargo has been saved from shipwreck at sea by uninterested persons, they are entitled to renumeration by the owner.

AVERAGE OF A/CS.

When one person owes another several debts, payable at different times, the rule determining the just time for a single payment of the whole, is called an average.

Rule 1. Multiply each debt by the time that must elapse before it will become due. (2ndly) Divide the sum of the products thus obtained, by the sum of the debts, and the quotient will be the time.

Rule 2. (1.) Multiply each debt, except the one that is payable earliest, by the difference between its time, and the time for that one. (2.) divide the sum of the products by the sum of the debts, and add the quotient to the time for the first debt.

Exam. 1. If a person owe another \$300, payable 4 m/s; \$500 payable 6 m/s, and \$400 payable $10\frac{1}{2}$ m/s, at what time may the whole be paid without loss to either person? Here by Rule 1. $300 \times 4 + 500 \times 6 + 400 \times 10\frac{1}{2} = 8400$, and 300 + 500 + 400 = 1200, then $8400 \div 1200 = 7$ m/s the time required.

By Rule 2. Taking 4 months from 6 and from $10\frac{1}{2}$ we get 2 and $6\frac{1}{2}$. Then $500 \times 2 + 400 \times 6\frac{1}{2} = 3600$, and $3600 \div$ 1200 = 3, lastly 3+4=7, the time required.

Exam. 2. One dealer buys goods from another on credit as under, from what day of the month may the whole debt be regarded as commencing? March 2, $80.00; March 7, $50.00; March 17, $100.00; March 20, $60.00; March 26, $25.00; March 30, $45.00.

According to Rule 2, we multiply 50 by 5 (7-2) 100 by 15 (17-2) 60 by 18 (20-2) 25 by 24 (26-2) and 45 by 28 (30-2). The products 250, 1500, 1080, 600, 1260; the sum of which is 4690, while the sum of the debts is $360, dividing 4690 by 360, we get 13; adding this to the first date 2, we find the debt $360.00 may be regarded as contracted on the 15th March.
